Overview of the proposals

Outline planning permission was granted at Peel Hall, Warrington in 2021 for:

- up to 1,200 homes
- a residential care home
- a local centre which may include a food store, financial and professional services, restaurants and cafes, drinking establishments and hot food takeaway
- family restaurant/ pub
- primary school
- open space including equipped play areas and sports pitches
- pedestrian and vehicular access points

The outline planning permission established that the principle of the development of this site was acceptable including the location of the vehicular and pedestrian access points and the impact on local roads, services and facilities.
